

'Your Space' Merthyr Tydfil Open Space Strategy

A shared and strategic approach to the provision of open space is essential for of well-designed and cared for open spaces within the County Borough. These valued spaces can contribute to the improvement of the health, economy and environment of our communities. In order to understand the supply and demand for open spaces, to identify deficiencies, secure new provision and to improve the quality of these spaces through better management, Merthyr Tydfil County Borough Council Town Planning Division has produced an Open Space Strategy.

After an extensive review of national, regional, local policy and context, the process of identifying and auditing open spaces within the County Borough has been recently completed.

We are now in a position to embark upon a series of community focused workshops and consultations which will enable us to share our findings with valued stakeholders including the wider public. We need to understand how our findings relate to outdoor provision and the varied needs of all members of the community.

If you belong to or represent a local group or organisation we would like to hear from you.

The presentation below gives a taster for the kinds of Open Spaces we are looking at. Please give this a viewing and if you would like to fill in the questionnaire you can return this to us by the following means:
