

Updated questions and answers – 02

Q. The Playing Field should be protected and should never have been an option. Who decided this?

A. The deed of dedication to Fields in Trust is dated 5th April 2013. The deed provides for disposal or alternative use of the dedicated land providing that other land is dedicated in exchange. The stakeholder members involved in the co-production group (following the listening & engagement exercise) decided that the playing field site should be included as an option for public consultation.