2. THE DATA WE COLLECT ABOUT YOU

We may collect, use, store and transfer different kinds of personal data about you as follows:

Personal information such as name, address, contact details, date of birth gender, images, video and audio recordings, digital and paper records that support our work with you.

Educational information such as reasons for support (such as concerns about learning, areas that require support and change) assessment and plan information (such as further details of barriers to learning, strengths and needs, interventions and next steps to support outcomes)

Lifestyle data such as ethnicity and religion

Medical information which may include information relating to your physical or mental health

We explain the different methods used to collect this data about you in section 3 of this privacy notice.

3. HOW WE USE YOUR PERSONAL DATA

We obtain personal information about you from your current and previous involvement from other organisations (such as paediatricians, speech and language therapists, teachers, social workers) or from schools and other setting information (such as attendance and exclusion information, national curriculum and exam attainment and progress) we may also obtain information from your involvement with other internal departments, such as our Children's Services Department, Flying Start Provision, Education Department and from our existing records.

We will only use your personal data where the data protection legislation allows us too. These will include the provisions set out under the General Data Protection Regulations and where relevant the Data Protection Act 2018. We will use your personal information in the following circumstances:

Where we have received your consent to provide you with specific intervention where no other lawful basis is appropriate

Where we need to comply with a legal obligation such as a court order or in accordance with your Statement of Educational Needs or Additional Learning Needs Plan

We collect and use your personal information to carry out tasks in the public interest or if we need to collect special category personal information, we rely upon reasons of substantial public interest to ensure you receive equality of opportunity or treatment.

We may also process your personal data where it is necessary for our legitimate interests (or those of a third party) and your interests and fundamental rights do not override those interests.

4. HOW WE SHARE YOUR PERSONAL DATA

We may share your personal data across the Education Department in order to provide you with the support you require; we will also share your data internally across other Council Departments.

The Access and Inclusion Service is a shared service with Rhondda Cynon Taff County Borough Council (RCTCBC). The Department works alongside RCTCBC to improve outcomes for children and young people. In order to deliver this service we are required to share information across our local authorities. In addition to this we may also share your personal data with our commissioned providers of local authority services (such as Cwm Taf Child's Psychology Service), your school/setting and supervisors (both within and external to the Department) for professional practice.

There may also be occasions when we are required to share your personal data with external third parties which include:

Partner organisations such as doctors, paediatricians, health therapists and mental health workers.

The Cwm Taf Multi Agency Safeguarding Hub (often referred to as MASH) if we have any concerns regarding your safety or the safety of others around you.

We may also share personal information with law enforcement or other authorities if required by applicable law.

We will share anonymised, statistical and complete sets of personal data regarding this activity with the Welsh Government for research and statistical analysis performed in order to improve the care and support provided to people in Wales. This data assists the Welsh Government to undertake research to help understand and improve the quality of education for children and young people so that they can engage in services to maintain and develop our professional practice.

We will not transfer your data to any countries outside of the European Economic Area. If we do we will inform you as soon as possible and you can expect a similar degree of protection in respect of your personal information.

5. HOW LONG WILL YOU USE YOUR INFORMATION

We will only retain your personal information for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements. The personal information collected in accordance with the processing detailed in
