BY THIS ORDER:

1. The highway more particularly described as the lane to the rear of Rees Street in Merthyr Tydfil ("the Highway") marked red on the attached Plan and being a public space within the Council's area to which the Act applies, will be restricted at all times for all classes of user other than those users specifically exempted by section 64(4) of the Act and/or article 6 of this Order, by the erection of barriers or gates shown marked in blue on the attached Plan.

   b. The effect, or likely effect, of the crime and anti-social behaviour is, or is likely to be, persistent or continuing in nature;
   c. The crime and anti-social behaviour is unreasonable and justifies the restrictions imposed by this Order;
   d. It is in all circumstances expedient to make the Order for the purposes of reducing crime and anti-social behaviour.
   e. There are reasonably available alternative routes via Rees Street and Dyke Street.

APPEALS

8. Any challenge to this Order must be made to the High Court by an "interested person" within six weeks of it being made. An interested person is someone who lives in, regularly works in, or visits the area affected by the Order. This means that only those who are directly affected by the restrictions have the power to challenge. The right to challenge also exists where an Order is varied by the Council. Interested parties can challenge the validity of this Order on two grounds; either that the Council did not have the power to make the Order, or the power to include particular prohibitions or requirements; or, that a requirement of the legislation was not complied with in relation to the Order.
